MY STUDENT’S INFO

Student ID#: _____

Mailing address: _____

IU email: _____

FERPA AND STUDENT RIGHTS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. To comply with this law, IU Indianapolis must receive written permission from the student to release any form of personally identifiable information including university ID number, grades/exam scores, GPA, current class schedule, disciplinary status, etc.

Your student has the ability to authorize another person to view specific information by granting third-party access through One.IU (e.g., bursar bills, holds on their account, grades, class schedule, unofficial transcript, and final exam schedules).

THIRD-PARTY ACCESS GUIDE

Discuss third-party access with your student and follow the steps below.

1. Have your student access one.iu.edu.
2. Search for “Third-Party User” or “Parent Access.”
3. Follow the on-screen instructions.

Note: Your student will assign a username and passphrase to you. Your student is the only person who can retrieve a new username and passphrase if lost.

Third-party user account: _____

Third-party user passphrase: _____

RESOURCES FOR TRANSITION

ACADEMIC ADVISING

Your student's advisor is a great resource for academic planning, navigating their major, support resources, and more. Your student can create an appointment with their advisor through Student Appointment Scheduler in one.iu.edu. Your student should log into their account, search for and click on the Student Appointment Scheduler tile, and click on Assigned Advisor or Office to find an available appointment. If your student needs help, they can call 317.274.4856 to speak with a member of the team.

go.iu.edu/acd • go.iu.edu/uc

ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTERS

Your student can find a tutor, get help writing a paper, polish their public speaking skills, or get help with their math homework.

- Bepko Learning Center
- University Writing Center
- Speaker's Lab
- Mathematics Assistance Center

FIND YOUR SPOT

With more than 400 student organizations to choose from, your student has a variety of ways to get involved during their time at IU Indianapolis. Teamwork, cooperation, and leadership are skills they can learn by getting involved on campus. And you know what's best of all? They'll learn these skills while having fun, building relationships, and making lasting memories.

go.iu.edu/spot

MENTAL HEALTH

Taking care of their mental and emotional health is an important part of your student taking care of themselves. Counseling and Psychological Services—commonly referred to as CAPS—is available to help your Jaguar find ways to manage their emotions and develop healthy coping mechanisms. Students can request an initial consultation with CAPS by emailing capsindy@iu.edu. For students who are looking for more holistic wellness sessions, they can sign up for free health and wellness coaching at go.iu.edu/coaching.

go.iu.edu/capsindy

PHYSICAL HEALTH

If your student finds themselves not feeling well, needing a physical, annual exam, immunizations, or sexual health resources, they can visit our Campus Health clinic. Your student can call 317.274.8214 to make an appointment.

go.iu.edu/campushealth

BURSAR'S OFFICE

If you or your student needs support in paying your bursar bill, the Bursar's office is here to help. Bills are created on the third Thursday of each month, and payments are always due by the 10th of the next month. There are several payment options available to you and your student, including entering a payment plan. Your student can also call the team at 317.274.2451 or email them at bursar@iu.edu.

J.A.G.S. VEHICLE ASSISTANCE

Jumpstarts for battery, air for tires, one gallon of gasoline, and help searching for a vehicle if your student can't remember where they parked. This service is available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. (excluding campus holidays). Your student can call 317.274.4234 to access this program.

parking.indianapolis.iu.edu

SAFEWALK PROGRAM

If your student needs assistance or would like an escort to walk from one place or another, they can request a Safewalk escort for free 24/7/365. A member of the IU Police Department will arrive shortly after the received request to walk your student to their desired location anywhere on campus. Call 317.274.SAFE (7233).

IU INDIANAPOLIS LINGO (JAG SPEAK):

JagLine: A free and efficient shuttle system to get around campus.

Jags: Short for Jaguars, which is the official mascot of IU Indianapolis. There are three Jaguar mascots: Jinx, Jawz, and Jazzy.

One.IU: The online platform used to access various campus services and information.

The Spot: IU Indianapolis's online student engagement platform to connect with registered student organizations and events.

The CUBE: A supportive, inclusive workspace for students which serves as the student organization resource center. There are plenty of lounge spaces to relax, network, enjoy lunch, and take a quick study break between classes.

DoSA: The Division of Student Affairs consists of nine student-focused units that help students find their version of success and prepare them for life after college.

Natatorium (NAT): A swimming and diving facility located on campus.

Carroll Stadium: An outdoor stadium on campus used for track and field events and soccer games.

Office of the Registrar: The office responsible for maintaining student records, including transcripts and class schedules.

Office of Student Financial Services: The office responsible for assisting students in exploring the different types of financial aid (e.g., scholarships, grants, loans, and federal work study) available to help them attend IU Indianapolis.

Office of the Bursar: The office responsible for billing and collecting tuition and fees.

Multicultural Center: The Multicultural Center seeks to support the entire student population by promoting the value of diversity, broadening multicultural awareness and sensitivity, advancing cultural competence, and encouraging cross-cultural collaborative relationships through retention, engagement, and education.

LGBTQ+ Center: It serves as a lighthouse for LGBTQ+ resources and as a landing ground to find community on campus.

AES: Accessible Educational Services is the disability services office for IU Indianapolis. The office determines if a student qualifies for accommodations, approves reasonable accommodations, and serves the campus community to ensure the implementation of those accommodations whenever possible.

Handshake: The career services platform utilized by campus. Internships and job opportunities are posted on Handshake by employers specifically looking to hire students.

CROF: Campus Recreation Outdoor Facility is home to volleyball pits, basketball courts, and green space for games and activities. It's located at the corner of University Blvd. and W. North St.

National Institute for Fitness and Sport (NIFS): Included in the Campus Recreation membership, students will have access to this facility along with full-service training and coaching options.

Jaguar Campus Recreation (The Jag): A facility in the Lower Level of the Campus Center that provides students access to intramural sports, fitness programs, and recreational opportunities.

SUMMER IN THE CITY

Indianapolis is a vibrant city of opportunities for your student during the summer months. Make use of the warm weather with a stroll around the downtown canal together, visit a local attraction, get lunch at a new spot, or plan an Indy weekend getaway of city exploration! Allow your student to take the lead in showing you around.
